MANAGER COMMENTARY

In the month of July, MSCI Asia Ex-Japan Index rebounded 1.5% but lagged the rebound in equity markets in the other parts of the world. The best performing market in the region was Hong Kong Hang Seng Index (+5.2%), Korea KOSPI (+2.7%), Philippines PCOMP (+2.7%) and Singapore (+2.3%). On the other hand, Indonesia JCI (-4.3%) and Thailand SET (-2.0%) indices closed significantly lower. In Asia, the focus this month was on significant policy changes in China and India. India RBI announced the first set of liquidity tightening measures. The measurements demonstrated the central bank's continued determination to curb currency volatility. In China, liquidity conditions eased after quarter-end, reflected in the pullback of repo and SHIBOR in the beginning of the month. Premier Li's speech that China could achieve the official GDP growth target (7.5%) this year solidified sentiment.

Head Inflation rose to 8.61% yoy, 3.29% mom in July (vs consensus 8.04% yoy, 2.79% mom) from 5.9% yoy, 1.03% mom in June, driven by fuel price hikes and seasonal price increases due to the upcoming Eid Mubarak holiday. The core inflation also rose to 4.44% yoy (vs consensus 4.56%) from 3.98% YoY in June. In the Board of Governors' Meeting on July 11th, 2013, Bank Indonesia increased its reference rate by 50 bps to 6.50% and the deposit facility rate (FASBI) by 50bps to 4.75%. Rupiah depreciated against USD (BI middle exchange rate) by -3.51% to 10,278 at end of July compared to previous month 9,929. Indonesia's 2Q 2013 GDP expanded to 5.81% yoy vs prior quarter at 6.03%, median estimate was 5.9%. Indonesia's June trade balance posted higher deficit at USD -0.85bn compared to deficit at USD -0.59bn in May 2013. Export decreased by -8.63% MoM while imports lowered by -6.44% MoM.

The JCI (Jakarta Composite Index) ended lower in July, falling by -4.33% MoM. Most of the large cap stocks led the decline including ASII, GGRM, CPIN, INTP and SMGR that declined by -7.14%, -16.30%, -16.50%, -14.72%, and -11.11% MoM respectively. On the other hand, there were several stocks moved positively which were TLKM, BBRI, BBKA, UNVR, and MLBI which appreciated by +5.78%, +6.45%, +4.00%, +3.41% and +16.67% MoM respectively. Volatility remains high with thin trading volume as offshore investors have mostly sold exited in June, who were concerned on worsening Indonesian Macro data as GDP, inflation and trade balance were below consensus forecast. On the contrary, the developed countries economic data improved, as seen on US's PMI reached 56.0 (vs. June at 52.2) and unemployment rate improved to 7.4% (vs. June at 7.6%). Euro zone also began to see improvement, seen in UK's manufacturing production that rose to +1.9% MoM in July (vs. June at -0.7% MoM) and German's factory orders grew +3.8% MoM (vs. June -0.5% MoM). Offshore investors continued to sell in Emerging market due to risk-reward ratio diminishes. Foreign investors posted net sell amounting US$250mn worth of equities in July. The Agriculture Sector posted the lowest performance this month where it depreciated by -16.61% MoM. The largest contribution came from LSIP (London Sumatera) and BWPT (BW Plantation) which fell by -34.88% and -23.96% MoM respectively. This was followed by Basic Industry Sector that also posted -11.35% MoM, driven by Poultry names like JPFA (Japfa Comfeed), CPIN (Charoen Pokphand) and INTP (Indocement) posted -24.22%, -16.50%, and -14.72% MoM losses respectively.
