

Group Link Money Market Fund

March 2017

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

The objective of the fund is to preserve value and maintain a high degree of liquidity.

INVESTMENT STRATEGY

The Fund seeks to attain its objectives by investing in short term high quality interest bearing instruments (such as deposits, SBI or money market mutual funds) and bonds with maturity less than 1 year.

PERFORMANCE INDICATOR

Return Performance

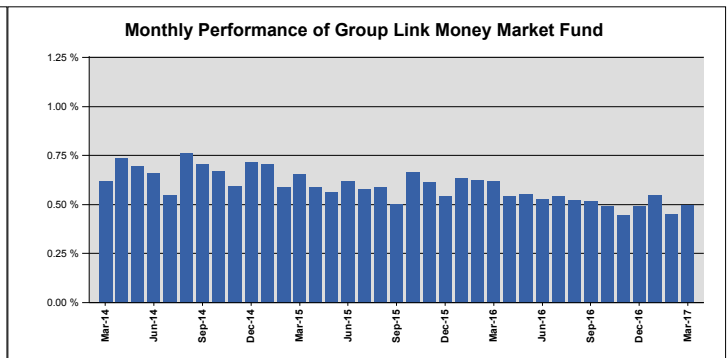

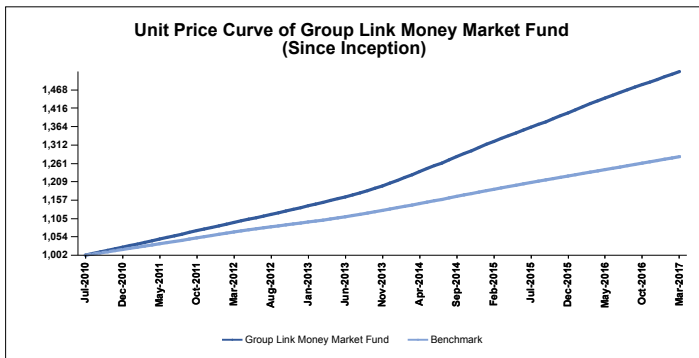

Last 1-year Period	6.30%
Best Month	0.76% Aug-14
Worst Month	0.35% Jun-12

Portfolio Breakdown

Corporate Bonds < 1 Year	12.38%
Govt. Related Bond < 1 Year	11.96%
Cash/Deposit	75.66%

	1 Month	3 Months	6 Months	1 Year	3 Years	YTD	Since Inception
Group Link Money Market Fund	0.50%	1.51%	2.96%	6.30%	23.68%	1.51%	51.95%
Benchmark*	0.29%	0.87%	1.74%	3.52%	11.94%	0.87%	27.96%

*Average Time Deposit (1 Month) of 1 State bank, 1 Local bank and 1 Foreign bank

KEY FUND FACTS

Fund Size (in bn IDR)	: IDR 253.05
Risk Profile	: Conservative
Launch Date	: 12 Jul 2010
Fund Currency	: Indonesian Rupiah
Managed by	: PT Asuransi Allianz Life Indonesia

Pricing Frequency	: Daily
Price per Unit (As of Mar 31, 2017)	: IDR 1,519.45

MANAGER COMMENTARY

Central Bureau Statistics of Indonesia (BPS) announced Mar 2017 deflation at -0.02% mom (vs consensus +0.20%, +0.23% in Feb 2017), mostly was caused by lower food ingredients prices also transportation and communication tariff. On yearly basis, inflation was lower to +3.61% YoY (vs consensus +3.80%, +3.83% in Feb 2017). Core inflation printed at +3.30% YoY, lower than previous month at +3.41% YoY. In the Board of Governors' Meeting on 15-16 Mar 2017, Bank Indonesia maintained the 7-day reverse repo rate at 4.75%, also Deposit Facility (DF) at 4.00% and Lending Facility (LF) at 5.50%. Rupiah appreciated by +0.19% to 13,321/USD at end of Mar 2017 as opposed to 13,347/USD previous month. Trade balance booked a surplus of +US$1.32bn (non-oil and gas surplus USD 2.55bn, oil and gas deficit USD 1.23bn) in Feb 2017. Export rose by +11.16% YoY mostly driven by jewelry exports, while imports rose by +10.61% YoY. FX Reserves rose by USD 1.9bn from USD 119.9bn in Feb 2017 to USD 121.8bn in Mar 2017 on the back of oil and gas export, government foreign loan drawdown also income from foreign currency BI Securities (SBB).